FUNDS AFFECTED: ☒ GENERAL
DEDICATED FEDERAL

IMPACT: State & Local

Summary of Legislation: (Amended) This bill exempts municipalities and counties from the requirement to provide rest breaks for minors employed at a camp or similar facility.

The bill changes the requirement that a child working at least six consecutive hours be provided a rest break of at least 30 minutes to a requirement that a child working at least eight consecutive hours be provided one or more rest breaks totaling at least 30 minutes. The bill removes the specified period of time during a child's work day in which the child must be provided a rest break.

Effective Date: July 1, 2002.

Explanation of State Expenditures: (Revised) Department of Labor: The changes in this bill could have a minimal administrative impact on the Department of Labor in so far as the Department is charged with overseeing employers' compliance with the state's labor laws. The Department of Labor employs four child labor inspectors.

Explanation of State Revenues:

Explanation of Local Expenditures: The bill extends the exemption from the rest break requirement for minors employed at camps beyond nonprofit entities to include municipalities and counties. The impact of the bill on affected local entities is expected to be negligible.

Explanation of Local Revenues:

State Agencies Affected: Department of Labor.

Local Agencies Affected: Camps and similar facilities operated by cities, towns, or counties.
